

Give Greece its Drachma back

written by Edward Maas | May 6, 2015

Unfortunately Greece only has one option which is organised default and exit from EMS with a virtual devaluation of around 60%. Any other option will not solve Greece's problems and just lead to costly delays of the inevitable outcome at an ever higher financial and human expense for Greece and its sponsors.