

GLOBAL FOREST FIRE TRIGGERS MAJOR WEALTH TRANSFER

written by Egon von Greyerz | August 20, 2020

Egon von Greyerz predicts an economic destruction of markets and asset values and a major wealth transfer and tell's The Capital Network's Executive Director Lelde Smits who stands to loose and gain the most. Egon von Greyerz specialises in wealth management and wealth preservation for high net worth individuals. He's the founder and managing director of Matterhorn Asset Management, a Swiss company that allows individuals to store their wealth in physical gold and silver.

In the interview Lelde asks Egon about his gloomy predictions, stating recently that, "The world needs a forest fire" and that there will be "massive suffering to bring about a sound financial system". Egon says, "This is the punishment that the world must go through.
