In A Time Of Universal Deceit, Telling The Truth Becomes A Revolutionary Act

King World News with Egon von Greyerz

In this week's interview Egon von Greyerz looks back at his 50 years' active business life experience and highlights the biggest dangers that are still lurking.

He talks about the Gold and mining boom in Australia in the 1960s, the oil embargo in the 1970s and the 1980's boom with bull markets in stocks, property, bonds and credit expansion that led to the build-up of financial weapons of mass destruction called derivatives.
