

Telling the truth is sometimes a revolutionary act

written by Edward Maas | February 20, 2015

King World News weekly – Feb 19, 2015

Egon von Greyerz: “Eric, we are seeing a steady stream of gold buying in our company but as the gold price indicates, there is no rush to buy gold. People don’t realize that gold at $1,200 today is cheaper than it was at $300 in 2002, when we recommended that our clients put up to 50 percent of their assets into physical gold. It’s not only cheaper today on a relative basis but it’s strategically much more important now than it was back in 2002...”

About:

- ‘In a time of deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act’ – George Orwell
- Central Banks worry
- Nearly 9 Trillion USD printed in less than 9 years
- Capital controls
- 1000 ton Gold shortage in 2015

Click here to read the interview