The World Is Now On The Edge Of Total Chaos And Disaster

King World News with Egon von Greyerz

In this week's interview Egon von Greyerz takes a closer look at the consequences of central banks interfering in the natural cycles of the economy and why manufactured money can never create wealth.

He discusses the major disaster that is hitting the pension sector with its underfunded pension funds and relying on bubble assets inflated by credit explosion.

Egon further explains technical fundamentals and specific indicators that show a violent move in favour of gold.
